

Your signature on The Valley Film Festival 2009 submission form confirms that you have read, understand, and agree to The Valley Film Festival (VFF) 2009 Terms of Entry:

1. All film submissions will be considered for entry to The Valley Film Festival, 2009.
2. The “10’ Hotter” competitive program will only consider film submissions completed after January 1st, 2007.
3. All submissions, if not chosen for the “10’ Hotter” competitive program, will be considered for an “Audience Award” program.
4. Entries must be sent on DVD: Region 0 (NTSC) or Region 1. (Please make sure the full title of film, total running time & contact information is on the face of the DVD.)
5. Foreign feature and short films submitted must be subtitled in English.
6. Official selections must have available either a BetaSP or DVD for projection.
7. Filmmakers with a feature or short film in the “10’ Hotter” competitive program must provide a minimum of three (3), non-returnable, DVD screeners for our judges. You may be asked for more, but are only obligated to provide three (3). Short filmmakers in the 10’ Hotter program may supply a password-protected link to view film online.
8. Filmmakers agree that their film or clips from it and all other material related to their project may be used and/or published in the event program, VFF web site and for any promotional purposes which VFF deems appropriate.
9. No viewing DVDS and/or promotional materials will be returned to the filmmaker.
10. If selected, all commercial/private property including all trademark/copyrighted materials shown or recorded on the project is the responsibility of the filmmaker. VFF will not take responsibility for any infringement of copywritten materials.
11. The cost of delivery and pick-up of all materials is the responsibility of the filmmaker.
12. VFF holds no responsibility for lost or damaged films. While the utmost care will be taken with regard to films, it is solely up to the filmmaker to take full responsibility.
13. Any questions - Call VFF: 818.754.8222. or Email: info@valleyfilmfest.com